

Excel NW Volleyball Club – Parent Expectations

Do:

1. Get your player to all practices and tournaments on time
2. Give advance notice to coaches of schedule conflicts
3. Cheer for the team, focus on the good, be a gracious loser
4. Volunteer your time for the benefit of the team, carpool, host team builders, shag balls at matches
5. Encourage your child to communicate openly and honestly with their coach
6. Give your child the opportunity to resolve any issues they have with the coach
7. Coach your child in how best to approach the coach and discuss their issues
8. Use a phone call or face to face meeting to discuss unresolved concerns with the coach
9. Contact any board member if you and the coach cannot resolve an issue
10. Pay your club dues on time
11. Read the handbook, and have your child read the handbook which is located on our website under Parent Info and adhere to all of the guidelines listed

Don't:

12. Second guess coaches decisions about playing time or strategy in front of players or other parents
13. Try not to address any issues with the coach on the same day as a tournament
14. Criticize participants, referee's, lines people, scorekeepers or spectators

I have received and the copy of Excel NW Volleyball Club – Parent Expectations and agree to adhere to these expectations, and those listed in the handbook.
